Children and Young People

Church groups seek to offer a positive experience for children and young people where they can learn and grow in faithfulness in a safe and positive environment. As a member a Church group you are expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

Children and young people are expected to:

- Be friendly and welcoming to new members;
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, social class, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity;
- Make your group a fun place to be;
- Be supportive and committed to other group members and offer comfort when required;
- Be loyal and give friends a second chance;
- Be respectful, helpful and trustworthy;
- Play a part in keeping themselves safe;
- Report inappropriate behaviour or risky situations;
- Behave and listen to all instructions from the leaders and helpers and stick to the rules, including rules around Covid-19
- Respect group leaders/helpers and accept decisions;
- Not be violent and aggressive;
- Refrain from rough and dangerous play;
- Take care of the equipment owned by the group;
- Refrain from the use of bad language, racial or sectarian references;
- Refrain from bullying; this includes bullying using new any form of social media;
- Not get involved in inappropriate peer pressure and push others into something they do not want to do;
- Pay any fees promptly;
- Not smoke, drink alcohol or take non-prescribed or illegal drugs on Church premises or at any event connected to Church activities.

Children / Young People have the right to:

- Be safe and happy in their chosen activity.
- Be respected and treated fairly.
- Take part as an equal to other children and young people in the group.
- Be protected from abuse by other members or outside sources.
- Ask for help.
- Be listened to.
- Be believed.
- Have any concerns taken seriously and acted on.
- Be referred to professional help if needed.
- Privacy.

Any minor misdemeanours and general misbehaviour will be addressed by the group leader. More serious or persistent misbehaviour may result in short term or permanent exclusion from the group. Parents/Carers will be informed at all stages.

I have read and understood the Code of Conduct and agree to abide by it.
